

* Unlimited Earning Potential

* Recruited by "Big 4" firms,
Tax prep offices, IRS

NAEA • America's Tax Experts
EDUCATING AMERICA
No Lines • No Borders

One license, valid in every state

What is an Enrolled Agent? Enrolled Agents (EAs) are the only federally-licensed tax professionals who specialize in taxation and have unlimited rights to represent taxpayers before the IRS.

What's so great about EAs? They are the only tax professionals with a license for "unlimited practice" issued by the United States Department of the Treasury...in other words, Enrolled Agents are America's Tax Experts. The Enrolled Agent's license is portable. There is no requirement to retest if you move to another state or another country.

<http://www.naea.org/educating-america>

Want to separate yourself from the crowd?

Thousands of accounting students graduate each year. What separates you from the crowd? What makes you stand head-and-shoulders above everyone else? What gets you multiple job offers nationwide? Becoming an Enrolled Agent! Enrolled Agents are in demand at firms such as KPMG, Deloitte, PwC and Ernst and Young; independent tax preparation firms; banks; investment firms; legal offices; and the IRS. Everyone hires Enrolled Agents.

Credibility - Enrolled Agents are recognized in the industry as America's Tax Experts. This allows you to demand a higher fee/salary. You control your career. There is a tremendous job market for Enrolled Agents—or, you can start your own business. You can work full- or part-time, anywhere around the world.

How do you become an Enrolled Agent? You can become an Enrolled Agent before you earn your Associate's/Bachelor's/Master's degree. You will be required to pass a comprehensive test in taxation. Many colleges offer Enrolled Agent review courses. Check with your college administrator. There are also online courses available.

Want to learn more?

National Association of Enrolled Agents

www.naea.org/educating-america